RECOLLECTIONS OF WM. E. CHAN-DLER REGARDING FLORIDA.

DEPARTMENT NOTES AND EVENTS OF THE DAY AT WASHINGTON.

PITKIN'S TESTIMONY. Washington, June 27.—The Petter committee questioned ex-Marshal Pitkin upon the method of employing deputy marshals in Lousiana. Pitkin said he always believed in the legality of the Packard legislature, and was of the opinion that the Packard government could have sustained itself within three weeks after recognition by the administration, without the aid of federal troops.

Witness narrated a statement made him by George J. Swazy, of the conference of members of the Packard legislature and members of the McVeagh commission immediately preceding the withdrawal of the troops and the recognition of the Nicholls government.

The examination was continued at length upon the facts of the McVeagh commission, and Gen. Butler requested that Packard be subpoenaed to appear before leaving the Hiscock and Cox said the minority of committee were disposed to accept the testimony of Pitkin as regards the affairs in Louisiana and suggested the additional witnesses would only accumulate evidence and delay the progress of the investiga-During the discussion Mr. Butler remarked that he wanted the great fraud probed to the bottom, and Mr. McMahon said the question of going into an investigation of the McVeagh commission had been decided in secret session, and he voted for it upon the ground that Gen. Butler informed the committee that an the fraudulent count of the vote of Louisiana had been made effectual, and that he could prove it. Gen. Butler, to the witness-I desire to turned to Washington, after the recognition of the Nichols government! A .- Yes sir, I had. Q.-What was said about providing for those who had lent the administration their ever since. services! A .- They said that when they arrived in Washington they would see Mr. Republicans, who had borne the brunt of the work in Louisiana, taken care of. Q.—Did that include Anderson? A.

Anderson's name was not mentioned. Q. By Mr. Potter-Could the Kellogg government have maintained itself without the aid of federal troops? A .- Yes, sir. There were no federal troops in New Orleans before 1874.

After a short executive session the committee took a recess. TESTIMONY OF ROGER C. BLASCOCK. The committee reassembled at 2:30 p.m., and Roger C. Blascock was called to the Mrs. Jenks boarded at his restaurant, on Ninth street, in this city, and he had a conversation with her, when she told him that she had a conversation with Mr. Sherman; that de had insulted her, and if he did not look out she would make it hot for him yet. Some days later she show d the witness a reply to an article in the New York Times, written by her. That she knew of , from Mr. Sherman to Weber, which she received from Mrs. Weber. She then said the document, and asked the witness to get home. She did not go, and the witness knows nothing further about the matter.

CHANDLER'S RECOLLECTIONS. Mr. Chandler then stated that he had no recollection of any conversation with McLin, in which Gov. Noyes was reported by Mc-Lin to have said he was authorized to say that he (McLin) would be taken care of does not know whether Mr. Wallace or Gov. Noyes made any such statement; does not recollect having had any conversation with Gov. Noyes upon the subject; Gov. Noyes did not tell the witness the cause of his coming to Florida; does not know at whose instance Gov. Noves came; the witness had requested that other Republicans be sent there, but did not ask specially for Gov. Noyes; the witness had many conversations with Mr. Lew Wallace, but the lat-

of those engaged in the count. In reply to Mr. Hunton, Mr. Chandler said that Gov Noyes did not tell him that Louisiana was all right for Hayes, but he said things looked hopeful; does not know that Gov. Noyes gave any assurance, general or specific, that the members of the care of; is unable to remember whether he himself gave any such assurance to McLin and Cogwell, and believe he did not; does not remember hearing anything of the sort in Tallahassee.

The witness went to Florida at the request of the National Republican executive committee; saw nothing of Mr. Hayes. either before or after his going to Florda; he both wrote and telegraphed to either Mr. Hayes or the latter's secretary. Capt, A. E. Lee; has no copies of the lettters sent to Lee or the telegram, which read: William S, Matthews and others of high character; rainy. [Signed.] W. E. CHANDLAR. "William" meant Senator, "S. Matthews, meant Stanley Matthews, and "rainy" meant things look favorable. He sent this dispatch to Capt. Lee, leaving him to do as he thought best. He certainly expected that Lee would communicate that telegram to Mr. Hayes. Mr. Matthews did not come. The witness does not know why. Gov. Noyes, John H. Casson, Lew Wallace, Wm. M. Audt, Wm. A. Robertson and D. G. Rollins of New York, and Francis H. Barlow, and John Little of Ohio came.

Mr. Hunter-Your telegraphic demand eems to have had good results.

Mr. Chandler-Satifactorily so. Mr. Chandler then read a telegram of November, 1876, in which the word "Robinson" stands for $3,090; then comes: "Can we also have Jones?" meaning 'Can you let me have $2,000 more?" "Rainy for not more than one-tenth of Smith's apples" meaning that a majority in the state would be about twenty-five for Hayes. "Cold fellows" stands for Democrats.

Mr. Hayes. It was undoubtedly well understood by everybody that Gov. Noyes was especially intimate with Mr. Hayes. In reply to Mr. Hiscock, Mr. Chandler said that a number of prominent Democrats were in Florida at the same time, among them James E. Brown, P. M. B. Young and A. R. Lawton, of Georgia; S. G. Thompson, of Pennsylvania; Manton Marble, Perry H. Smith, of Ohio, and John F. Coyle, Chas. W. Wooley and Thos. M. Satterstall, of Boston; E. L. Parish and others. The Democrats excelled in numbers and ability.

The witness assigned the Republican visitors to their respective duties. Gen. Butler showed Mr. Chandler a numagreement had been entered into whereby ber of telegrams, many of which Mr. the son slew his mother that her blood winter before the senate committee on Gen Butler, to the witness—I desire to ask you if you had any conversation with Field committee he declined to decipher part of the boy. BUTLER'S POLICY. In the examination of Pitkin to-day Butler laid the foundation for trying to prove the alleged bargain of the Louisiana settlement. Butler said that while he should prove Mr. Packard was legally elected, he believed that Hayes was entitled to the vote of Louisiana, as well as the vote of every other southern state, if a free and fair election could have been held. Some of the Democratic members of the committee took occasion to differ with Gen. Butler on this point.

PACKARD SUMMONED. The committee, at instance of Gen Butler, has caused a telegraphic summons to pe sent to Packard at New Orleans, to come before the committee before sailing for Europe. Butler said he thought Packboard of state canvassers would be taken ard would throw some light on the transactions which he intended to show up. It was a fact, he said, which could be proven, that the returning board of Louisiana was kept up to this work during his count by the promise that they should not be harmed, but taken care of. As the committee has entered upon that branch of the investigation the session will probably continue most of the summer.

THE REMAINS LYING IN STATE. Madrid, June 27 .- The announcement f the death of the queen of Spain has been received with profound sorrow and sympathy throughout Europe. The feeling in Spain almost approaches consternation. Hopes were raised at the crisis of the disease that the vigorous constitution of the queen might triumph over the complication of maladies, but her condition was made doubly perilous by the fact that she was expected to become a mother before the end of a year. The queen died about noon, in the arms of the king and surrounded by the royal family. The remains will lie in state to-day and be conveyed to the royal mausoleum at Escurial Friday. It is the murder of a mother by a son only nine years old.
